From the moment Beth Biggs took her first long-term care job straight out of college, she was determined to make an impact—to care for seniors better, measure and improve outcomes better, educate the public better.

Beth oversees all pharmacy operations for the Oregon Division including fiscal outcomes and quality/patient safety practices. She has extensive long-term care experience, spending 15 years as a social service director, administrator, Director of Operations and finally, General Manager. Her background has brought a greater understanding of the Long Term Care customer needs to the Pharmacy team.

She was appointed by the governor of Oregon to serve on the state's Patient Safety Commission, and is a member of the board of trustees for Aumentra Health, Oregon's Quality Improvement Organization. She's a frequent presenter on topics ranging from leadership development to quality and patient safety practices.

Outside of Marquis, Beth's charity work with organizations that coordinate health care services for underserved communities has taken her to Mexico, El Salvador and throughout the United States. She's been a life-long supporter of local food pantries, serves on the auction committee for Medical Teams International and volunteers with Vital Life Foundation partners.

Beth holds a Bachelor of Social Work degree from Minnesota State University, and earned a master's in Health Care Administration from Portland State University. She grew up in North Dakota, and she and her husband enjoy travel, art and spending time with family and friends.
